Your library card may be used at the John C. Fremont Library District. It is for your own personal use. You are responsible for all material borrowed or charges incurred on your library card. Minors under the age of 14 years and the parent/guardians are responsible. Please report lost or stolen cards immediately to prevent unauthorized use.

The library charges fines for material kept past the due date, and reserves the right to refuse further service until overdue materials are returned and account balances are paid.

Fines are as follows:
Books/Audio Books/Magazines: $0.05 per day per item up to $5.00
Music CDs/DVDs/Video Games: $1.00 per day per item up to $5.00

There is a three day grace period for overdue items.

Please report any changes of name, address, or other information immediately.

Colorado Patron Privacy - In accordance with Colorado Law (24-90-119) the public library treats all your transactions with us as private and confidential. You may authorize us to make specific exceptions.

If you want someone else to pick up your materials, pay fines, or have access to your library records simply lend them your card.

*If you wish to allow your family members to have access to all your transactions at ANYTIME including information about your holds, outstanding charges, and items checked out check yes under account privacy.

Note: This permission may be added or rescinded by you at any time by notifying a circulation staff member during regular library hours.
